

* Chosen to 2006 Super Lawyers

For some of Boston's most experienced and well-known attorneys, the sum of their practices is truly greater than the whole. Three established firms who share common office facilities have enjoyed a strategic alliance promoting comprehensive client representation in a small-firm environment.

McDERMOTT, QUILTY & MILLER LLP concentrates in government affairs, representation of the alcohol beverage industry, the biopharmaceutical industry, zoning and commercial real estate development. The firm is counsel to the Wine and Spirits Wholesalers of Massachusetts, the Massachusetts Biotechnology Council, major real estate developments, restaurants, beverage retailers and sports/entertainment venues. Steve Miller and Dennis Quilty co-chair MCLE's Annual Alcohol and Entertainment Licensing seminar and author its Practitioner's Handbook. Terry and Bill McDermott specialize in government affairs, which include helping numerous Fortune 50 clients effectively interact with all levels of government. Joe Hanley and Karen Simao provide successful representation in the firm's specialty areas.

BY ALIGNING OUR FIRMS' DIVERSE EXPERTISE AND EXPERIENCE, WE ARE ABLE TO PROVIDE FAR-RANGING CLIENT REPRESENTATION WHILE RETAINING THE AGILITY OF A SMALL FIRM.

SWEDER & ROSS LLP Ken Sweder and Mitch Ross have each specialized in complex business litigation at the highest level for more than 35 years. Their expertise in partnership, shareholder, contract, employment, trade secret, real estate and accounting litigation, and in crafting solutions to complex problems, derives from their long experience as partners of major Boston and New York law firms. A Boston Business Journal profile described Ken as a "business-savvy litigator" tackling the city's "high profile cases." He was founding Chair of the Boston Bar Association Business Litigation Committee. Mitch has served as General Counsel and later CEO of a $4 billion financial institution. He is currently an Adjunct Professor at Suffolk Law School and president of the Frank J. Murray Inn of Court.

WILSON DAWSON & BRETT provides a range of services to many long-term clients in its practice areas of corporate law, employment matters, civil litigation, estate planning and real estate. Jim Wilson joined the firm in 2002 after serving for a number of years as General Counsel for a large Boston based financial services company. Glenn Dawson represents some of the largest public utilities and nuclear power generating plants in the United States. He practices labor & employment law, emphasizing arbitration and collective bargaining. Jim Brett, who represents business, litigation and real estate clients, was the subject of a feature article in Lawyer's Weekly concerning a $10 million aviation crash case. Tammy Wilson recently joined the firm from Bingham McCutchen, where she was an associate for six years.
